SPIRITOR DRAGE

Family Rewspaper--- Beboted to Politics, Foreign und Bomestic Rews, Literature, the Arts und Sciences, Concation, Agriculture, Markets

VOLUME 42

WOODSFIELD, MONROE COUNTY, OHIO, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1886.

NUMBER 52

THE SPIRIT OF DEMOCRACY.

PARSON OF TAMES

BETTOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Advertising March proceeds months. He was the second to second the second to second the second to second the second to second the second th th solumn, six months, ghth solumn, one year, uma, three months th column. one year, ma, three me

ATTORNEYS.

CLICAN P. BUILDER, Minus Black

Motory Public.

WM. OKEY & SON. ATTORNEYS AT LAW WOODSFIELD, QUIO. Maskington Township, Monroe Co., O
All calls premptly attended to, during the day or night.

Feb. 28, '69.

George G. Jennings, ire in Ketterer's building. apri4,'86

G. W. HAMILTON. Attorney at Law & Notary Public, (Office ever Pope's Drug Store.) Voodstield, Ohio. ties in Menros and other sounties.

James Watson, ATTORNEY AT LAW WOODSFIELD, OHIO,

J. P. SPRIGGS. Attorney at Law and Notary Public. WOODSFIRLD, OHIO. ill practice in Mouree and adjoining coun-Bee up states in Monroe Bank building. EAGLE HOUSE

Driggs & Mallory, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. WOODSFIELD, OHIO. ties in Mearoe and adjoining son

FURNITURE. *

IMMENSE STOCK

HELBLING & STOEHR'S NEAR THE DEPOT.

WOODSFIELD, OHIO.

of of real development to be Vis. Removation of Princip and se aloop as the theapest

Wardrobes, Chairs, Tables, Bu-reaus, Bedsteads, Looking Glasses, Hat Racks, Picture Frames.

And everything else in the Parniture Line OHIO, of Dayton. Pictures Framed to Order IN BEST OF STYLE.

LO. O. F. DIRECTORY.

Woodsfield Lodge, No. 377, L. O. C. F.—Meets every Tuesday evening C. LUDE, N. G; G. B. CLINGAN, Rec. Secretary Woodsfield Encampment, No. 168.
Meets in Lodge Room the first and third Friday evening of each month. ASHER OKEY,
C. P.; FRITZ REEF, Socibe.

MASONIC DIRECTORY.

Monroe Lodge, No. 189, F. and L-Meets at Masonio Hall in Woodsfield,

CHURCH DIRECTORY. Christian Church .-- No resident Mini

St. Sylvester's Catholic Church.-Rev. Father WEISINGER, Pastor. Services a 8 and 10 o'clock A. M. Sunday school at 2 P

M. E. Church,—Services at the M. E. Church. Woodsfield, every Subbath. Preaching at 10:30 A. M. and 7 P. M. Sunday school 11:30 A. M. Prayer meeting every Thursday at 7 P. M. Pastot, Rev. H. D. STAUFFER. 7 50 at 7 P. M. Pastor, Rev. H. D. STAUPER.
15 00 St. Paul's German Evangelical 20 00 Church, Services every two weeks at 10
30 00 c'clock A. M. Services every surface Sur10 00 0 c'clock A. M. Services every alternate Sur20 90 day at Lewisville at 10 c'clock A. M. Pastor, 30 00 Rev. A. J. WINTERICK.

Presbyterian Church,—Services at the Presbyterian Church, Wood-field, every two weeks at 2½ o'clock P. M. Sunday school every Sunday at 1 o'clock P. M. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 6½ o'clock.—Pastor, Rev. W. T. Garroway.

PHYSICIANS.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, BEALLSVILLE, OHIO. Office in the Armstrong property.

Dr. J. WAY PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. HILM COVE. Washington Township, Monroe Co.

DR. JAMES A. McCOY, ATTORNEY AT LAW. DEINTITST Visits Woodsfield Regularly. I guar-antee better work and use better materials than any Dentist in the county, and residence in the Atkinson proper ty, Main street. Calls Promptly Attended Day or Night. dec 8. 85 ma.

ORGANS

HURCH COMMITTERS, School Boards of ORGAN can produce first class instruments at lowest cash prices by calling on or addressing - REV. W. T. GARBOWAY, against young Laroche was a man of the hedge by soung Laroche which as he Whittier's Estey Organs a Specially.

PAULL STREET.

Woodsfield, Ohio. POULTON, Proprietor

I tel, and furnished it comfortably for the accommodation of travelers, I cordially invite them to visit me.

Rates Reasonable. Also, Preprietor of Town Hall and Skating Bink. Dancing Parties accom-modated at all times. decc. '557.

Obio Farmers Fire Insurance Com.

LEROY, OHIO. Incures nothing but Farm property. Rates lower than those of any other Company doing business in this county.

Assets, :: $1,187,236 03 nov12,78. Agent for Monroe County.

Companies, all of which are the most relia-ble Companies in the United States, All

UNDERTAKING Norchandise, Lumber, Stock,

Doctry. .

THE KINGDOM OF LOVE.

Reflected the surprise above, set forth, with a heart full of courage an

To seek for the Kingdom of Love. asked of a post I met on the way Which cross-road would lead me aright, And he said, "Follow me, and ere long, yo Its glistening turrets of light."

nd soon in the distance a city shone fa But alas! for the hopes that were doomed

It was only the Kingdom of Dreams. Then the next man I asked was a gay car And he said: "Follow me, follow me " And with laughter and song we went speedin

By the shores of life's beautiful sea. Then the wonderful Vale of Cashmere, And I saw from a bower a face like a flower Smile out on the gay cavalier. And he said: We have bome to human Here love and delight are intense." But slad and alas for the hope of my soul It was only the Kingdom of Sense. As I journeyed more slowly I meten the

And they said: 'Follow us, for our lady' Belongs in the realm you would find." Twas a grand dame of fashion, a newly-week

I followed encouraged and bold, But my hopes died away like the last gles

For we came to the Kingdom of Gold. At the door of a cottage I asked a fair maid,

So I know not the way," and she sighed looked on the cettage—how restful it seemed And the maid was as fair as a dove. Freat light giorified my soul as I cried: "Why, home is the Kingdom of Love!"

Select Storn.

The person who brought the charge ing him with the stake cut from the against young Laroche was a man of the hedge by young Laroche, which, as he stake from the bedge on the afternoon which he had been pastor of for so many marvellous recuperator of wasted plied. previous to the murder, and that be had years.

from Laroche, he had nicked it in a pe-culiar way with his reaknife. of several miles be came to a sluggish stream that had formerly been spanned culiar way with his peaknife. Now, it so happened that the murdered by a bridge, of which nothing but the farmer had many and influential friends, abutments remained, however. The tion of the kind in Russia, has just been while Leroche had but few. Therefore priest turned his horse's head and rode dedicated at St Petersborg. The build-floor The side of the building from animal began to struggle and plunge vi-which the window looked ran sheer clently, sinking at the same time as if down to the water of a dark, deep river, drawn down by some invisible power. which creeps lexily by the mill, but quick ened the pace a little lower down, until it gradually became a rushing torrent, leaping wildly on to its fall over a perpendicular ledge of rocks. Bodies carried over his horse would be certain death, as the covered; and a fixed notion among the and the hungry sand at the hottom was country people that there was a suctional gaping for him. He held upon his horse, force below by which everything falling therefore, and shouted for help.

plored always of the serth.

A. G. W. POTTS,

A great head: "You have a great

A. G. W. POTTS,

A great head: "You have a great

A great head: "You have a great

A great head: "You have a great

the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep

r in the terrified horse sank deeper and deep sand the beat sand the price of the terrifically creat of the sand the price of the sand the p plored ahysses of the earth.

"If I die by the gallows, most reverend Rsther." said the young man, "a great sorrow will some day tall upon all concerned in my death. The real murderer is sure to be discovered sooner or later, and the just retribution of heaven will pursue my murderers. Aid me to escape rather than risk a great stain upon your conscience. Stand upon this chair which I place upon the table, thus; and then, by mounting upon your shoulders, I can reach the window and drop from it."

"If I die by the gallows, most reverend Rsther with a great to find his attendant the lost Spride. Explanation ensued and all was made clear as day without recourse to marvel or miracle.

Presently Laroche, who had been engaged, with the assistance of some of his neighbors, in extricating the priest's horse, came in, and the scene was an affecting one between the two, each of whom had been thus wonderfully approach to miracle.

The strict is attendant the lost Spride. Explanation ensued and all was made clear as day without recourse to marvel or miracle.

The strict is attendant the lost Spride. Explanation ensued and all was made clear as day without recourse to marvel or miracle.

The strict is attendant the lost Spride. Explanation ensued and all was made clear as day without recourse to marvel or miracle.

Presently Laroche, who had been engaged, with the assistance of some of his neighbors, in extricting the priest's horse, came in, and the scene was an affecting one between the two, each of whom had been thus wonderfully approached by Providence to preserve the barber. reach the window and drop from it."

"I can swim like an otter, and at any Father Atlard. "Heaven has surely parrate it is better to be drowned than doned the little fiction framed by me; banged."

cers of justice-s stolid peasant who had to his side. been placed there by way of sentry, and Poetical justice might now have been who at this moment happened to be well satisfied, but I have a few words looking toward the river wall of the further to add upon the subject. mill. His sight nearly left him, as he plunge, reappearing at intervals, until he sassin Landry. wee carried away into the rapids below.

The slarm was at once given. Village they found Father Allard alone, seated De Witt Talmage, while she has alaways on the chair, pale as if just recovering modestly kept herself in the background, from the sight of some supernatural via is nevertheless almost as remarkable for ion. To the question put to him he replied that, as he was administering the band. A woman of medium height, with consolations of his boly office to the dark hair and fisshing black eyes, and a spartment, accompanied by the shadow ter; Mrs. Talmage is a noticeable figure spartment and was no more se n by him | ted wife and mother, and the duties that The voice, he added, proclaimed the pris- devolve upon her as the wife of a min-from the window, had forgotten all about in every way a rare, woman among wothe platform. As he fell upon it he displaced a sack of grain which splashed modest.—Chicago Journal decaying gravestones, His shall endure forever, deep graven on fleshy tables of heart. His revelation of God is the into the dark waters of the river, appear ing to the eyes of the bewildered sentry to be the body of the man who had drop ped from the prison window. Laroche lay upon the nerrow platform stunned fall. There was no one else in the mill told her that she considered her singing at the time. She drew him behind the of Mezsrt's music somewhat hurried, thy farmer was found dead at early mor-ning within a hundred yards of his own roche and she had been lovers for about speak of you." Jenuy Lind retired bouse. He had been killed by blows ad- six hours only-made their way to where crushed and discomfitted, Patti is a ministered by a heavy stake, which lay a boat lay moojed below the falls; and lively chit of 43. near the body covered with b'ood; and embarking in it were soon carried far be-his pockets had been rifled of their con- vond pursuit. It was supposed by the M. KENNON. M. D., tents, including a considerable sum of the previous evening for some which he was known to have ee ceived the previous evening for some sheep sold by him in the neighboring bad been seen to strike upon it; and as ped at a country inn. The travellers When the awe and excitement created been known to give up its dead but little with the others. All went to the wash by this event had subsided a little, every search was made for her, and her friends shelf at the end of the porch. He was reproved him for it, and taking the stake | Shortly after his arrival there his du- those derangements and maladies pecufrom him had stuck it on the bank of the lies led him to take a journey on horse. har to their sex, by reason of which the through or coming to drink. The prison consisted of a single apart- The water appeared to be shallow, as ment, lighted by a small window, at the be urged his unwilling horse into it, and height of about sixteen feet from the had got about half way across when the the fall were said to never have been re- water was not deep enough to swim in nto it was carried down into the unex- The water was gaining upon him as the terrified horse ank deeper and deep

"My conscience is clear now," said just gotten the lather on a customer when

Convinced of the young man's innocence Father Allard consented to aid him in his escape. A moment sufficed to car ry the plan into execution. The priso ner gained the window and disappeared.
Parading in a straggling way outside

"But hold, reverend father," cried Lathe interrupting him; "there was no in the case. You said that I was carried away upon an angel's wings, and ner gained the window and disappeared.
Parading in a straggling way outside me!" And he, laughing, threw his arms the building went one of the minor off sround his pretty wife and hugged her

Laroche, who was now employed as afterwards stated, when he saw a man forester upon an estate, was enabled by drop from the Jail window, strike on a the assistance of Father Allard to return platform that protruded from a doorway to his native village, where, not long afin the second story, and rebounding from ter, he obtained an appointment to the that fall into the water with a heavy very keepership formerly held by the as-

The Wile of Rev. De Witt Talmage. flicials rushed to the prison-room where The wife of the great preacher, Rev. risoner a voice sounded through the face showing great strength of charac prisoner mounted to the ceiling of the worker in the church as well as a devooner's innocence, and the real circum- ister of so large a congregation would stances of the murder would soon be appall any woman less gifted with good judgment and untiring energy than she. It was a miracle; and the good coun- Mrs. Talmage has, among her other laat form bors, the charge of a Bible class of 300 y people, ever ready to accept that form one interposition, were easily persuaded adults, to whom she delivers a lecture on the world's records have become unced on the present occasion.

Meantime, Liroche, when he leaped way as her husband's sermon. She is decaying gravestones, His shall endure

How Patti Crushed Jenny Lind.

N. Y. Commercial-Advertiser. At a recent reception held by Baroness ited or local in His character of works.

Burdett-Coutts, Patti sang the letter aria from "Don Giovanni." At its concluse He stands so high above us all, that and affairs Her dressing is not considered. Many years ago the community of a certain hamlet in the south of France was startled by a crime rare indeed in their quiet agricultural district. A weal-thy farmer was found dead at early mor-ning within a handle found to the sum of the south of the so

Two Ways of Bathing. the whiripool below the torrent had never alighted, and the supposed man got out exertion was made by the authorities to resigned themselves to mourning for her watching the woman in disguise as she ferret out the perpetrator of the crime.

A reward was offered for the discovery of the murder of a broth.

Less than six months after this Lanhe discovered her sex by her manner of hounty was made for several successive er keeper and was convicted and hanged applying wa'er in washing her face, All Sundays at the church door. At last accordingly. Previous to his conviction, men rub up and down and enort. All some disclosures were made, implicating however, he made a clean breast of it to women apply the water and stroke gently you will see."

"Sweet Maud Muller." Whittier's beautiful ballad contains name of Landry—a stranger to the dis-trict, but who had lately been appointed by the lord of the manor as one of the keepers of game preserves. Landry teerified that he had seen Laroche cutting a tance of some fifty miles from the one Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" a strength, and of sovereign efficacy in all hedge at a particular spot. The stake back some miles into the interior of the was the same one that was found lying parish of which he had charge Part of near the body of the farmer. Landry could swear to it, because after taking it a swampy forest region, and after a ride gists. Female Education in Bussia.

Laroche was convicted of the murder along the bank of the river boping to and sentenced to be hung on a certain find another bridge, or at least a ford, by day and at a certain place, until which which he could cross to the further side; time he was placed for safe keeping in nor had be gone far when he discovered, the jail of the district—the third floor of by hoof marks, a place where cattle some one, and in its arrangements for a large stone building, the lower part of seemed to be in the babit of wading heating and ventilation is said to surpass every other building in the capital not excepting the imperial palaces. It contains six lecture-rooms, each furnishing sittings for 300 students, seven museums and laboratories.

Palette and Brush. N. Y. Times. "Why, Palette, old boy," said Robinson, heartily, "where have you been lately-out of town?" "Ya'as," replied Palette; "been up along the line of the Hudson, painting ittle bits of scenery-trees, rocks, and that sort of thing, y'know." "Ah, ah! Patent medicine ads., I sup

Dayton. Dayton

QUEER PEOPLE.

Baker, the Barber, the Ton of Coal and the Tramps. The barber's shop was next door to ne baker's shop, and the baker bad just gotten a ton of coal. The coal had been dumped on the sidewalk and, after the fashion of coal men, much nearer to the barber's door than to that of the baker, to whom it belonged. The barber had one of the genus tramp came in. "Put in ver coal, mister ?" 'No," said the barber pleasantly; "n my friend, that's not my coal, you

Toe tramp had hardly around the corner when another opened "Put yer coal in fur ye, mister ?" "No," said the barber a little sharply the coal's not mine, I say " They kept coming, and seven of ther appeared in twenty minutes, and to the eighth man the barber is alleged to have "Now, see here," said the shavee. there sin't no use in gittin' mad over it

Just put up a sign sayin', 'This coal sin't

Not Lost. Johnny came into his mother's room ooking pretty much as though he bad een sent through a sausage cutter. "Gracious sakes alive, Johnny," screamed, "what is the matter with you? Where did you get all those scratches are only gilded on the top edge, where did it from Shoice:

and all that blood ?" "Fightin'," he answered briefly. "B bby Jones" "You naughty boy. And you've lost front tooth, too! Oh! oh!" walled the poor woman. "No it ain't lost, either." "Yes it is. Put your finger up "I know 'tain't there, but 'tain't lost, I know where it is. It's sticking in the Libel on Lovely Women. "What are you doing, Mary?" asked husband, addressing his wife. "I'm sewing on a crazy quilt," she re-

A Means of Salvation.

Texas Sifting. "Have you lived a good life?" said St. Peter to a trembling female who knocked timidly at the Gate of Beauty. "I was only good at one thing," said the sprite before bim, with a doleful shake f the bead. "And what was that ?" ingaired St. Peter in a voice of blissful sweetness "Cooking," responded the timid one, in wostul tones. "Come right in, then," said the sentinel saint: 'you've saved more men from perdition than a dozen missionaries, and I don't believe you can find anything around here in the shape of blessedness that you're not entitled to."

At Birminghom, Ala., the other ay, a feather-renovator on ripping open rossted the poor baby. an old feather bed discovered a bandsome diamond ring. It was sent to the men, suffering from premature decline of be carried on peacefully.

F: "I knew them both." R's mother. 'You know, Fairfield, they were struck dead for telling lief.'

R': "Yes, I saw them struck."

R's. mother: 'Fairchild, do you know where they went?" (Very lin-pressively.)—They went to hell.

F: "I know it. I saw them go."

who lives up to his light and ability is his meless, but in God's night faulty. He is not consulous of his defect, his eyes are not so sharp as God's; his hest affects are like the needle-work of the fittle gifl, well done for her, but so defective in fact that every stitch must be resulted."

Just put mp a sign sayin', 'This coal sin't mine.' That's all ye need "
"Say, you've got a great head," said the barber, and in a few moments be had a sign stuck on the top of the beap of coal. "Reckon that'll fix it," he remarked.

The door opened and a tall man with a shovel looked in. "Say, mister, did you put that 'ere sign up, or did the other of feller?"

Then the barber closed his shop and went out and got drunk—with malice to the states and got drunk—with malice to the per singular to the per singular to loss from all causes is between two sulf three per sars to Chicago, where direct connections.

to-day the inspiration of His example ered in good taste, and her conversation

Gilded edges are put upon books no so much to improve the appearance of the volumes, but to allow them to be more easily cleaned. When gilt-edged To be sure we once knew one who books are dusty a sharp slap against an- accustomed to write his "copy" on the other volume or the surface of a table soles of his shoes and then go harefoot will clean them instantly. It is for this while it was being "set up." But that the dust is likely to settle. People not knowing this often return such books to me Saturday?" "Certainly." "Spring their dealers as incomplete, -Detroit Free chickens, weren't they?" "Of course

Each Envied the Other. "Mister, will you please give me a few time I want a pair of rubber springs, peunles to get something to eat?" seked Wire apriligs are too much for my a ragged but hearty-looking tramp of a blood."
benevolent but dyspeptic-looking old The Swiss Minister recently took gentleman on Walnut street yesterday. trip through the south and west to exa "Are you really hungry?" asked the smine into the condition of the Saint

"Then you should be a happy man.— at eighty thousand: The I would willingly give half of my fortune if I only could have my appetite and prosperous. once more," was his consoling reply as plied.

"Are there any buttons on it?"

"No."

"I thought not," he said; "It wouldn't be like you to be sewing on anything that needed buttons," and, drawing a deep sigh, he proceeded to fasten his suspenders with a half burned match.

"Smith, did you see my wife go down this street?"

"Yes, she passed about an hour ago."

"Wonder what my chances are for overtaking her?"

"Good The sidewalk is just lined with show windows."

"A Means of Solvention."

"I thought not," he said; "It wouldn't be passed on.

"They will Surely Find You.

They will surely Find You.

Staten Island, and is a slim, well-preserved man, as straight is an arrow, with a frostly head and theeks of a pink?

whith a limit of sire in unexpected places, go:

a frostly head and theeks of a pink?

whith a short any surely find You.

Staten Island, and is a slim, well-preserved man, as straight is an arrow, with a surely su er Of grapes for family use President Bury, good authority, names this selection: The two best grapes for people who want grapes easily grown, of not the highest quality. Concord and Worden; or, of better quality, Eumelan and Barry, or Wilder. Two white grapes, Duchess and Niagara; Rebecca is better than either, but more difficult to grow; two red grapes, Delaware and Brighton; Gartner is a superb red grape, and quite grapes, to write, or to do that which is true, fitting and valuable. as easily grown as any.

wouldst not threelf enfler. St Hillair. Bishop of Pocilers, 085.

No Christian is or can be fau tener, at the point deemed it expedient ought to be. The child it it does it needle-work faithfully is commended. Fairchild," said she, "did you never hear of Anniss and Sapphire?" who lives up to his light and ability is

sed whense of AUTS

went out and got drunk—with malice aforethought.

He had only one remark to make when Justice Meech fined him $5. "Mister Judge," he said, "can't I make that baker pay my fine?"

**Men cling to Christ to-day as if it was but yesterday that He had died for them When all other names carved to the said. The loss from all three per causes is between two suit three per causes is between two suits and chief three per causes is between two suits and chief three per causes is between two suits and chief three causes is between two suits and chief three causes is between two suits and chief three causes i money. Above all things do not purheart. His revelation of God is the highest truth. Till the end of time will turn to His life for the clearest knowledge and happiest certainty of their Factor in Heaven. There is nothing limited or local in His character of works. celving a letter from one of the B. & Or ited or local in His character of works. queer things that cause remark, and is tion as to all necessary details of time connections, fares, baggage, etc., etc.

> Why so Few Women Whistle Black-They tell me your wife is quite a whistler. White-She is; whis ties most of the time. Black-And you allow it? Don't it amony you? White —It don't annoy me, and, as for allowing it, I chicontage her in it. Black—Why? White—Because a woman can't whistle and talk at the same time.

Journalists are proverhially wealthy "Remember those chickens you sold

What was the matter with them?" nothing. The springs were all there only I wanted to tell you that the nex calf of Bobby Jones' leg. 'cause I left old gentleman, eyeing the tramp critic- people in this country. He estimated the number now as two hundred thou:

eand, though the census of 1880 gives i at eighty thousand: This people a John C. Fremont is now the older

Norton mansion when he captured the affections of the fair Ina. The affair created a lively sensation in the city: Some people talk as if the whole ject of life was to obtain liberty, instead of the whole object of inherty being attain a higher and a fuller life. To is true, fitting and valuable, Strive everywhere, and in all this to be at peace. If trouble comes with A colored woman near Pond Hill, Conn, put a baby in the oven of a stove to keep it warm while she went out on an errand. In her absence her husband came in, built a roaring fire and literally rossted the poor baby.

and a wavering doubt of his guilt, which had all along troubled Father Allard's mind, so wrought upon that worthy man that he at last consented to commit him that he at last consented to the distance had been been last the distance had be Promptly and exceptly attended to, All binds of Undertaking Goods always on hand constitute of Comms, Caskets, Shrouds and Barial Robes of all sizes, dec27,"8, pound tump in its pairs pocket to take that the at last consented to commit time of the constitute of th his earnings so large.